BECK TO EXPLAIN LIABILITY ACT

Industrial Commissioner to Speak to Employes and Employers at Court House

LOCAL WORKMEN INTERESTED

Many Employers Considering Coming Under Provisions of the New Law

John J. Beck of the Wisconsin Industrial commission will speak on the employers' liability and workman's compensation law at the court house tonight. Through the request of several of the labor organizations and employers, Mr. Beck has been persuaded to explain the law to the people of La Crosse.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain the provisions of the law to all so that employer and workman alike may consider the advisability of coming under the new law. This law is optional and either the employer or workman can elect to come under its provisions. Both must agree to come under the law in order to make it effective but if the employer signifies his intention of operating under the law, the workmen must make it specifically understood that he does not wish to come under it or else it will be assumed that by his lack of action he has elected to come under the law.

Few Under Law
Thus far but few of the large manufacturing plants of La Crosse which are operating under the new law, the chief establishment being that of the John Gund Brewing company. In other parts of the state most of the large concerns have elected to come under its provisions and are now operating in accordance with the new law.

Many of the local workmen are interested in the new law and wish to have it thoroughly explained and several of the large employers are now considering action but wish to become better acquainted with its provisions before taking any steps.
Mr. Beck will discuss the full workings of the law and tell what steps must be taken to come under it and approximately what compensations are allowed by the commission for various kinds of injuries.

But Two Losses So Far Under the new law the compensations are smaller than under the former laws governing protection of workmen but by this law the provision which removes the liability of the employer in case of injury due to neglect has been repealed and the employer is liable in all cases except where death or injury is due to wilful, premeditated action on the part of the workman.

Thus far there have only been two cases in La Crosse county which have come under the new law, that of the two men who were killed by a fall from the roof of one of the buildings of the La Crosse County Agricultural school at Onalaska. The county has no option, according to the provisions of the law and must operate under its provisions. The compensation for the two deaths aggregated $4,700.

CONDUCTOR FALLS IN FAINT AT HIS HOME

D. D. Goodrich, 224 South Fifth street, a conductor on the Milwaukee road, was suddenly taken ill about noon today. He lost consciousness and for a time it was feared he had suffered a paralytic stroke. Dr. G. J. Egan was called and declared the swoon was due to a derangement of the stomach. Mr.
Goodrich will be completely recovered within a few days, according to the doctor.

BANDITS CAPTURE BRITISH WOMEN

BELIZE, British Honduras, May 12.—Bandits captured six of the prettiest young women of the town of Bullet Tree, near here, and fled with them to the hills. All are British subjects and it is feared a fate worse than death awaits them.

SNOW IN DENVER

DENVER, May 12.—Winter today threw his hat back into the ring.
Shortly after midnight, one of the most remarkable weather demonstrations in many years began with a heavy fall of snow. At 8 o'clock this morning four inches of snow covered the ground and the white flakes were still falling in a blinding cloud.

FAVOR SIX-YEAR TERM AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A favorable report on the plan to fix the term of the president of the United States at six years and probably re-election, was apparently assured at a meeting of the senate judiciary committee today. The session was devoted to consideration of the resolution by Senator Works to submit to the states a constitutional amendment carrying the six year and no re-election plan. A big majority of the committee voted affirmatively on the question of recommending its passage.

Stead's Spirit Says He Died Easily

PARIS, May 12.—William T.
Stead, the famous writer and deliver into psychic research work, who went to his death in the wreck of the Titanic, is said to have sent a message from the spirit world saying that his death was painless and perfectly calm. Fernand Girod of the Psychic Research society of France, an organization of standing, today announced that after repeated efforts he had succeeded in communicating with Stead. Girod says that for four days Stead had been trying to communicate with him and after repeated attempts and the use of five different mediums he received the message which said that Stead had died without suffering and in perfect calm.

MINNESOTA VOTES STRONG FOR T. R.

Has All But Two Districts Cinched Following the Primaries There
Last Week

11 COUNTIES FOR LA FOLLETTE

Senator Bob May Win Delegation from the Ninth District when Returns Are In

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 12.—Roosevelt has carried every district in Minnesota, with the possible exception of the First and Ninth.

In the First, James A. Tawney's district, Taft men carried several counties and are disputing control of the district convention, although indications favor Roosevelt.

In the ninth, La Follette and Roosevelt are running neck and neck, with the Taft men holding the balance of power.

Other seven districts went overwhelmingly for Roosevelt and no doubt of his control from the state convention is held.

Roosevelt will get not less than twenty and probably twenty-one of Minnesota's twenty-four delegates.
Latest returns show Minnesota delegates as follows: Roosevelt, 808; Taft, 119; La Follette, 109.

Taft carried 11 small counties and La Follette 11, of which six are in the Ninth congressional district.
The delegates in state convention total 1,106, eighty uninstructed.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., May 12.— Jubilant over his apparent clean sweep of Minnesota, Colonel Roosevelt today gave the finishing touches to the speeches which he will deliver in Ohio this week. The colonel will leave Oyster Bay late this afternoon.
Sixty speeches will be made in the Buckeye state, the first one being at Bellaire tomorrow morning.

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio, May 12.— President Taft resumed his fighting attitude at the village of Dexter today and flayed Roosevelt in a way that delighted his supporters on the special train. Taft was informed that Dexter City is a hotbed of Roosevelt sentiment and he immediately demanded that the train make a special stop that he might address what people might be at the station.

"BLEEK" ESCAPES VANDYKE BEARD

Town Is Full of Whiskers Since Barber was Driven from Village by Virginia Gang

No, it wasn't an election bet. Bert Bleekman would never stake the possibility of growing a beautiful Vandyke upon the success or failure of any politician. But nevertheless he was in a fair way to acquire that desirable or undesirable ornament by the time he managed to escape the city limits of Welsh, West Virginia.
The whiskers started growing, according to Bleekman, when the only barber was driven out of the town at the point of a gun by members of the famous Hatfield gang, feudists of the Allen type, because a certain member of the gang thought the barber was a trifle too rough in handling the razor.

Since then whiskers of every description have been flourishing in Welsh. In fact they have become so plentiful that the Hatfield gang are considering a raid for the purpose of capturing another barber.
Upon his return today, Mr. Bleek-man told the story which has gained wide credit in Virginia of how Sidney Allen previous to his leading the attack on the Hillsville courthouse, had told his wife he would not return alive and to see that he was buried beneath a certain tree where his ancestors had been buried.

PRINTERS VOTE NOT TO STRIKE

Chicago Papers Have Support of Typos Following Meeting of Union

OTHER UNIONS AID STRIKE

Members to Be Fined if Found Purchasing Any of Papers Fighting the Pressmen

CHICAGO, May 12.—Newspaper publishers against whom five unions are striking were encouraged today over the action of the local typographical union in obeying the orders of James M. Lynch, international president and voting against a sympathetic strike at their meeting yesterday.

The union leaders refuse to be disheartened by this action on the part of the printers and declare they will win their fight. They look for some sympathetic strikes in other cities where Hearst papers are published.

Members of several unions were notified by their local officials today that any member who purchased a paper against which a strike is on will be fined. The milkmen's union and the electricians fixed $25 as the amount of the fine to be assessed against any member who was found "buying a trust paper." Other unions decided upon lesser amounts.

There were still 1200 policemen on duty at news stands and in the Loop districts, although there was no trouble reported.

Members of the striking unions say that the papers are still badly crippled and that the non-union men brought from other cities are fast leaving the offices. They admit that the morning papers are making more than the afternoon. The afternoon papers have not attempted their early editions and have concentrated their efforts on getting out at noon and in the late afternoon. Sporting editions have been practically eliminated, but the afternoon publishers promise to resume them this week.

FLOOD CRISIS IN TWO DAYS MORE

If Louisiana Levees Can Hold Till Wednesday Experts Think the Danger Is Over

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 12.— Although expecting additional millions in damage from the waters now pouring over a great area of Louisiana, the government engineers today predicted that if the levees still holding can withstand the strain until Wednesday, the danger will be passed. The crest of the flood is expected today or tonight.

The Louisiana legislature which assembled today, will at once consider a motion to adjourn sine die because of the flood conditions.
Back water from the Torras crevasse today had reached Irwinville and the town is under fifteen feet of water. Boats are being rushed to the rescue of 150 persons marooned in the town's highest buildings.

The situation is critical at Morgana, where the levee is very weak.
Word of additional loss of life reached here today. At Gilbert the wife of S. N. Dorsett, a prominent lawyer, was drowned.

At Estherwood, E. S. Upton and his wife sought to rescue several negroes marooned in a tree, the boat overturned and the would-be rescuers were drowned. Reports here say that negroes have looted the towns of Batchelor, Fordoz and Grosche.

AFTER PERJURY EVIDENCE

CHICAGO, May 12.—Oliver E. Pa-gin, fourth assistant attorney general, was in Chicago today going over the records in the recent packers' trial.
He was seeking evidence on which to base indictments for perjury and will present his findings to the federal grand jury.

FRISCO PRESSMEN STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 12.— The Examiner, W. R. Hearst's newspaper, against which the pressmen's union declared a strike Saturday night, issued an 8-page paper today.

WOLGAST SUFFERS IN RITCHIE BOUT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.— Bearing two badly blackened eyes, a cut lip and a wrenched back as the marks of his encounter with Willie Ritchie here last Saturday, Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion, today left for St. Joseph, where he is billed to meet Daniels in a limited round battle. Mrs. Wolgast and Tom Jones, his manager, accompanied him. Before meeting Daniels, Wolgast will look him over. If he proves to be a tough and heavy fighter, Ad will cancel the bout.

Putrid Meat Used As Food Is Charged

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A revolting story of beef packing horrors recalling the famous "jungle" at Chicago, was told to the Moss investigating committee today by J. W. Burroughs, former inspector in support of Representative Nelson's charges that the department of agriculture is lax in its enforcement of the federal meat inspection laws.
Burroughs said that at Cumberland, Md., packinghouses in 1910, water polluted with typhoid germs was used, with approval of the inspectors and that in Philadelphia the same year, lard containing worms, scrapie made from bad meat and carcasses of hogs that emitted "an awful stench" were among the violations of law he noted.

WEATHER LOWERS TAG DAY RECEIPTS

Quality of Generosity Shows Slight Decline, Although More Persons Donate than in 1909

NEARLY 1,200 SELL TAGS

Several Offers Received by Committee to Make Up Deficiency in Receipts

The tentative report of the committee on the raising of funds by Tag Day show that while La Crosse has more generous persons this year than two years ago, the quality of generosity has taken a slight decline. According to the report, less than $1,500 was raised this year while that amount was raised two years ago. Two years ago 18,000 tags and 500 banners were distributed, while this year about 25,000 tags and 2,000 banners were sold.

The report in full has not been completed as yet, but according to Mrs. George W. Burton, chairman of the committee private subscriptions are expected which will bring the total amount to $1,500. Several persons have offered to make up the deficiency.

1,200 Sell Tags

Nearly 1,200 persons took part in the Tag Day work including 500 women, 600 girls and about 100 boys.
The committee in charge today announced that all had done excellent work and extended their thanks to all. The Boy Scouts, a large number of whom took part in the park, were highly commended by the committee.

The committee consisting of Mrs.
G. W. Burton, Mrs. A. Chubb, Mrs.
W. R. Finch, Mrs. F. C. Suter and Miss Nettie Sabelwitz, also wish to extend their thanks to the following for their co-operation: Y. M. C.
A., Y. W. C. A., Norden Band, stores, banks, court house officials, city hall officials, postoffice officials, hospitals, hotels, factories, students, teachers, the Boy Scouts, several of the citizens who added to the fund by remitting checks, the press and the general public.

Bad Weather Blamed
The 1909 fund was largely increased by several $100 checks which were sent to the committee. Thus far the largest check received has been for $50.

Members of the committee attribute the falling off of the proceeds to the weather and it is thought that several hundred dollars more could have been added to the amount collected if weather conditions had been favorable.

ARENA IN HOME DISTRICT

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. M., May 12.— In the residence district of East Las Vegas within ten minutes' walk from the center of the city, an arena will be erected for the staging of the Johnson-Flynn fight.

STOUGHTON HEARING SET

STOUGHTON, Wis., May 12.—The state railroad commission has fixed May 17 as the date for the first hearing on the application of a number of residents in the city of Staughton for a new railroad station.

Give The Women A Hearing

This evening Mr. Richard Lloyd Jones, a journalist of national experience, will address the people of La Crosse upon the subject of votes for women.
The men must be the jury in this case, as it is to be settled by ballot, and only men may vote.
The women ask the men to be present and hear arguments in their behalf before voting on the question. That is all they ask. How can the voters of La Crosse refuse this request for a hearing?

ELKS PREPARE A BIG CELEBRATION

Week of Festivities to Dedicate New Home on State and Fifth Streets

PLAN ELABORATE BANQUET

Ball and Reception to Go Down as the Biggest Events in Local Elkdom

The biggest event in the history of local Elkdom will take place this week when La Crosse Lodge No. 300 will give its housewarming banquet, ball and reception in honor of the opening of the new home at State and Fifth streets. The banquet which will be one of the most elaborate ever given in La Crosse will be held Tuesday evening and it is expected that besides the several hundred local Elks many from other cities will attend and take part in the celebration.

Thursday evening the Elks and their wives, daughters and lady friends will attend a ball in the ball room, which will be decorated for the occasion. The Saturday evening reception will wind up the week of festivities.

The new building, which will be dedicated by the week's celebration, was completed last January and is considered one of the finest buildings in the city. It cost more than $45,- 000 and was occupied by the Elks January 29. Since that time preparations for the housewarming have been going on apace and it is expected that the affair will go down in the history of the local lodge as the "biggest stunt ever pulled off in La Crosse."

Speeches by prominent local Elks as well as by out-of-town brothers will be on the program for Tuesday evening banquet which will be attended by several hundred members according to a statement of a member of the committee on arrangements today.

CIRCUIT COURT OPENED TODAY

Seven Admitted to Citizenshi, One Case Dismissed, and Two Others
Continued

The first case decided at the May term of the circuit court which opened here this morning was that of the State vs. Charles Hass, charged with drunkenness. Hass was fined $15 by Justice Asa Darling of Bangor recently upon that charge, but appealed the case to the circuit court. It was shown that no complaint had been made and he was discharged by Judge E. C. Higbee this morning.

The case of the State vs. Frank Ackers and Thomas Daly, charged with burglarizing Milwaukee freight cars and stealing eighteen bottles of beer, was continued until tomorrow as was that of the State vs. Ed Wilson, charged with larceny from the person. He is alleged to have stolen $8 from a West Salem farmer when the latter was under the influence of liquor at the Wisconsin house.

Eight applications for naturalization papers were made this morning and the usual examination held.
Seven were admitted to citizenship.

NO KIMMEL QUESTIONING

CHICAGO, May 12.—No trick questions or quizzing of any kind by persons who desire to disprove his claims that he is George A. Kimmel, the missing Niles, Mich., banker, will be permitted until the patient at the Burns hospital, is fully recovered, according to Dr. Loren A. Wilder today. The man's mind, Dr.
Wilder said, will not stand any testing until the effects of the recent operation to restore his memory have passed.

ASKS SENATE'S SUPPORT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 12.— Members of the state senate today received letters from Representative Donahue, of Bloomington, begging them to support his Modern Woodman rate bill which will be up on its passage in the senate tomorrow.

PLAN TRIALS OF OTHER OUTLAWS

WYTHEVILLE, Va., May 12.— On the eve of the Floyd Allen charges to the jury, commonwealth attorneys today began planning for the trials of the four other members of the outlaw gang who shot up Judge Massie's court at Hillsville, nearly two months ago. Because Wytheville county finances have already been greatly depleted by the Floyd Allen trial, it was the general belief here today that an agreement would be reached between counsel for the prosecution and the defense, to permit consolidation of some of the remaining trials.

Pigeon Takes Refuge In Badger Capitol

MADISON, Wis., May 12.— A lone carrier pigeon, looking tired, worn and weather beaten, flew into the law library in the east wing of the capitol last night, and was perched on one of the desks when Paul Bremer, custodian of the library, opened the department this morning.
With a wire waste paper basket as a cage, the pigeon is spending today in one of the windows of the library.
Mr. Bremer will feed the pigeon until it looks strong enough to continue its journey, and he will then turn it loose.
It is believed the bird will fly to its home if released.
On the left leg of the pigeon, which appears to be well trained and a highly valuable carrier, is a small metal tag bearing the initials "P. B." and the number "69439."

$10,000,000 FOR ORGANIZERS

After Merger Was Formed Moving Spirits Took Big Share of the Stocks

NEW YORK, May 12.—That $10,- 000,000 of the capital stock of the American Tinplate company was distributed among its organizers, was admitted by Daniel G. Reid, its president, on the witness stand today, in the government's suit for the dissolution of the steel corporation. The statement came following questioning by the former Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson, special representative of the government.

Reid, who appeared to be suffering from an intermittent memory while being examined by Jacob M.
Dickinson, recovered to a great extent when taken in hand by C. A.
Severance for the steel corporation and in answer to questions asserted that the formation of the tin plate corporation alone saved a number of the tin plate companies from going to the scrap heap.

Reid insisted that few if any of the companies were making any more money and said that a number of them were in great distress. He declared emphatically that the formation of the merger did not establish a monopoly. At the present time there are 235 companies in the merger and 202 independent companies.
Many of the independents had come into the field, he said, since the organization of the merger.

LIFE FOR OLD OFFENDERS

WASHINGTON, May 12.—West Virginia's habitual criminal law, fixing life sentence for persons convicted three times of felonies, was today declared constitutional by the supreme court. Convict James H.
Graham, a horse thief, sentenced to life imprisonment for a third offense tested the law.

POLICE PREVENT PUBLIC MEETING

Raid Gathering in Home, Although No Complaint or Warrant Has Been Issued

WAKEFIELD, Mass., May 12.— Another "free speech war" similar to that waged by the Industrial Workers of the World at San Diego, Cal., and other points on the Pacific coast, is expected here today because the local police, without warrants, raided the private residence of Angelo Salvarti and prevented an I. W. W. meeting of protest against the holding in jail of Joseph J. Et-tor and Alturo Giovanni.

Etto and Giovanni are the two strike leaders who organized the Lawrence strikers and were thrown into jail as accessories to murder when Annie Lopizzo, a woman striker, was killed during a clash between police and textile millworkers.

Salvarti had rented the G. A. R. hall for a meeting yesterday afternoon. G. A. R. veterans protested and the workers were denied the use of the hall. Three hundred strong they adjourned to Salvarti's home, where they had been in session less than ten minutes when a squad of police raided the meeting.
William E. Trautmann and Mrs.
Elizabeth Gurley Flinn, national organizers of the I. W. W., were escorted to the cars and told they would be arrested if they did not immediately leave town. They went to Lawrence, Mass.

TOMLINSON HALL, INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 12.—A universal demand that the socialists take immediate action to abate what they termed the "San Diego nuisance," featured today's session of the socialist national convention. The matter was crystallized by William D. Haywood, leader of the militant industrialists who presented a telegram from the San Diego socialist organization signed by Kasper Bauer.

The convention agreed to finance the fight for "free speech" on the Pacific slope and the telegram was referred to the executive committee for immediate action.

The convention battled for several hours over the question of committee membership, the militant element headed by Haywood opposing the names suggested by the "literary experts" headed by Job Harriman, defeated candidate for mayor of Los Angeles last fall.

Discuss Hanford's Action

The right of a federal judge to revoke the citizenship of any man who has sworn allegiance to the American flag overshadowed all other issues in the convention. Federal action was promised by Congressman Victor Berger to compel Judge Cornelius H.
Hanford, who on Saturday revoked the naturalization papers of Leonard Olson to recall his decision or face impeachment proceedings in Washington. Never before has a jurist attempted to say whether alleged mental reservations could be utilized to revoke citizenship, and the socialists have received numerous letters and telegrams from both democratic and republican leaders tendering support in a local battle.

The decision will be carried to the supreme court of the United States and the financing of the legal battle will be taken care of by men who have no sympathy with socialism.

Against Speaking Campaign

The feature of today's session was the presentation of the reports of the committees, and the permanent officials. Great interest centered in the report of Secretary John M. Work, who bitterly arraigned speaking campaigns in a national fight. Work's attitude was opposed by many members of the national committee who

PROTEST AGAINST TWO AMENDMENTS

Physicians and Tax Payers Present Petition to Council Regarding Health Department

A protest signed by all of the city physicians but four and a large number of the heaviest tax payers of La Crosse, recommending that no action be taken by the council to amend the ordinances governing the health department was presented at the meeting of the city council last night. Following is the protest and signers:

Establishment Justified
 To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of La Crosse:

We, the undersigned practicing physicians in the city of La Crosse protest against any motion which would change the character, or interfere with the efficiency of the health department of our city.

As a body best qualified to judge of the proper way in which to conserve the city's health we strove for years to get a properly organized and efficient health department.

It is justifying its establishment from an economic as well as from a sanitary standpoint; we, therefore, ask that there be no repeal of, and no change made, in our health ordinance.

Conduct Efficient
 We the undersigned citizens, and employers of labor, are in hearty agreement with the attached protest of the physicians of La Crosse against any molestation of the health department, by ordinance or otherwise, which might interfere with its efficient conduct as at present organized.

FLYNN PROMISES BEATING TO JOHNSON

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. M., May 13.—Reading in a Chicago dispatch that Jack Johnson was making 215 pounds for him in their 45-round contest July 4, Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, said: "If that's right I'll clean him good on the fourth. If Jack gets that fine it's a sin and a shame what I will do to him."

Flynn went shopping, buying supplies for his training camp. He purchased new beds, furniture, cooking utensils and supplies of every possible sort.

Manager Curley went house hunting and rented a twelve room house. Curley will establish his permanent office in the dwelling and set his full machinery in motion.

Play is the work you don't have to do.

A Coldwell Lawn Mower

is not a cheap lawn mower—it is an inexpensive one. See the difference?

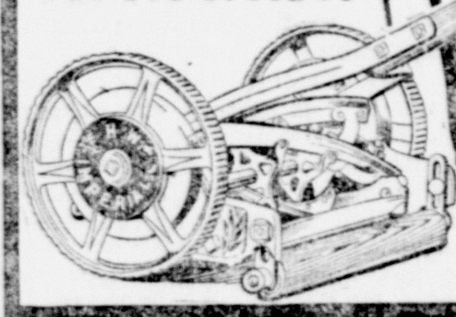

A Coldwell originally costs you a trifle more than the ordinary machine, but a Coldwell lasts—stays out of the repair shop and the scrap heap—that's where you save money.

We can make more money on some other grades of lawn-mowers, but we want the reputation of delivering the goods, that's why we recommend a Coldwell.

Come in and let us show them to you.

POPULATION LEAVES GUADALAJARA DRIVEN OFF BY FEAR OF ANOTHER EARTH-QUAKE

MEXICO CITY, May 13.—The city of Guadalajara is deserted today. After four slight earthquake shocks caused the city to tremble at 3 o'clock Saturday, public buildings were rocked later in the day by three more quakes more severe than the first.

Three volcanoes, Ceborecu, El Coll and Colima, are erupting today. The first two have been inactive for over fifty years, but great quantities of lava are now pouring down their sides.

Part of the town of Bacalar has been destroyed by an eruption of the Bacalar volcano, belated reports received here declare.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents use. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.

A large audience filled the Metropolitan theater Saturday evening to witness the entertainment given by the grade pupils of the public schools. Songs, recitations and drills made up the excellent program, in which nearly five hundred children took part. The closing number was "The Star Spangled Banner," sung by 450 children with waving flags.

The entertainment was prepared by the teachers of the graded schools, the Misses Mollie Rosenbaum, Nora Derry, Edna Curran, Evaline Swigum, Alta Lewis, Jennie Iverson, Geneva Atkinson, Ruth Collins, Lillian Waters, Emma Kasperek and Mrs. B. E. Carter, instructor in music.

Mrs. Arthur Brower was called to Beloit by the death of her mother, Mrs. Gaston, which occurred Saturday night. Mrs. Gaston has frequently visited here. She was ninety-eight years of age.

A sad death occurred here Saturday, that of Mrs. Gardner, who leaves a husband, two little boys and a young daughter. The family formerly lived in Plattville.

The Episcopal ladies' Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon at the parish hall for sewing and supper.

Mrs. E. M. Wright entertains the Five Hundred club Monday evening. Dr. and Mrs. R. M. White will soon move into the Brunton house on Minnesota street.

Miss Ruth Hall left Friday for Davenport, Iowa, where she joined her aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt of St. Paul, and a party of friends, for a trip on the steamer "Morning Star." The steamer is making her initial trip for the season to Cincinnati, St. Louis and New Orleans. Miss Hall will visit in Paducah, Ky., before returning home.

Miss Alice Green spent Saturday and Sunday in St. Paul.

Van S. Bennett of Rockton, Vernon county, visited here over Sunday.

Col. C. E. Morley of Viroqua is taking treatment for rheumatism at one of the sanatoriums.

To Keep From Losing Breath.

Where respiration is rhythmic there is no loss of breath in walking fast, running uphill or going upstairs. The method of preventing breathlessness consists in maintaining the rhythm and the speed of respiration. When the breathing is rhythmic the breathing keeps pace with the step. The outbreathing must be twice the length of the inbreathing and not more than eighteen or twenty complete breath circuits must be made per minute.—Harper's Weekly.

Outdoor Game.

A splendid way to get children out of doors is to get them interested in playing "architect." A stony vacant lot or an open field is the playground, and the children vie with one another in gathering large pebbles, with them making "life-size" bungalow plans upon the ground. This done, the pebble plans become make-believe houses for the little folks to play in. Children seem to keep up interest in this simple game for months.

Fashion's Dangers.

Fashion is dangerous, not only because it swallows up fortunes and virtues, but because it reveals your most intimate thoughts to all who can read.

REBELS ROUTED IN BIG BATTLE

Orozo Defeated and Driven Back from Torreon After 12 Hours of Hardest Fight of War

EL PASO, Texas, May 13.—Defeated and driven back from his advance on Torreon after a twelve-hour battle, during which more than 500 were killed and wounded on both sides, General Orozco has established rebel headquarters at Rellano today and will await the arrival of reinforcements before making another move against the federals.

A general order summoning all revolutionists to mobilize at Rellano has been issued by the rebel leader. Following the victory of yesterday, however, it is not believed the federals will rest with their partial advantage, but press Orozco and probably force him into battle again immediately. In such case the overwhelming defeat of the rebels is predicted.

The fighting on the plains between Conchos and Yermo yesterday was the most severe of the war.

A courier has reported that Gen. Trucey Aubert, the federal commander, was shot in the leg. The rebels abandoned the field leaving their dead and wounded behind, an also lost ten cannon and much ammunition in their flight. After the engagement the field was strewn with the bodies of the dead and dying.

Two rebel generals were missing early today. Generals Campa and Artugumedo were sent to the east to flank the federals, but were out-generaled and at a late hour last night had not yet joined the main command. The rebels abandoned their positions at 3 o'clock and it is believed Campa and Artugumedo may have been captured.

GEORGIA PRESSMEN STRIKE

ATLANTA, Ga., May 13.—The pressmen employed on the Atlanta Georgian went on strike in sympathy with the striking pressmen in Chicago. W. R. Hearst owns the Georgian and it was on Hearst's Examiner that the Chicago trouble started. The newspapers here have agreed to stand together and the Journal issued no afternoon edition although their pressmen did not strike.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

The usual symptoms of Scrofula are enlarged glands of the neck, sores and ulcers on the body, skin affections, catarrhal troubles, weak eyes, and general poor health. The inherited poison, transmitted through the blood, pollutes and weakens this fluid, and in place of its nutritive qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter, which saps the vitality of the entire system. Thousands of children, born with a scrofulous taint, have spent their childhood in constant physical suffering, and grown to manhood or womanhood handicapped by ill health and stunted growth, and perhaps later some disease of the bones or joints developed. S.S.S., given in their early life, would have prevented this. It would have cleansed and purified the blood of the taint, nourished and strengthened their systems, and assisted each to grow into strong, healthy manhood or womanhood. S.S.S. is the very best remedy for Scrofula. It goes down to the bottom of the trouble, and cleanses the circulation of all scrofulous matter. It supplies the weak, diseased blood with strength and health-building qualities, and under the purifying effects of this great remedy all symptoms of Scrofula pass away. S.S.S. contains no minerals in any form, and is an absolutely safe treatment for children, even infants, or persons of any age. Literature about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

SHE STARTS WAR ON DRINKS FOR WOMEN

CHICAGO, May 13.—A crusade against the sale of liquor in the exclusive clubs of Chicago—for both men and women—was started by Mrs. Harold F. McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, and one of the most active club women in the city. The fight is to be carried into the most exclusive of all the city's clubs, the Saddle and Cycle, of which Mrs. McCormick is a member.

"If I had my way," said Mrs. McCormick in an interview, "there would be no public drinking anywhere on the part of women. I do not say that anything improper has been indulged in at any of the clubs, at the dances or parties, but I think a few of the conventionalities have been forgotten."

In accord with a wish of her father, the oil magnate, no liquor is permitted served in the McCormick home.

WOMAN IS IDENTIFIED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 13.—An aged woman, named Keller, identified the woman who was found dead in a bungalow here, as her daughter. She refused to tell her daughter's name but said that the daughter had disappeared after a quarrel with her husband. The daughter formerly lived in Chicago. Mrs. Keller said her clothes resembled those worn by the murdered woman.

The secret of success lies on the other side of doing.

TWO KILLED BY CHICAGO STORM

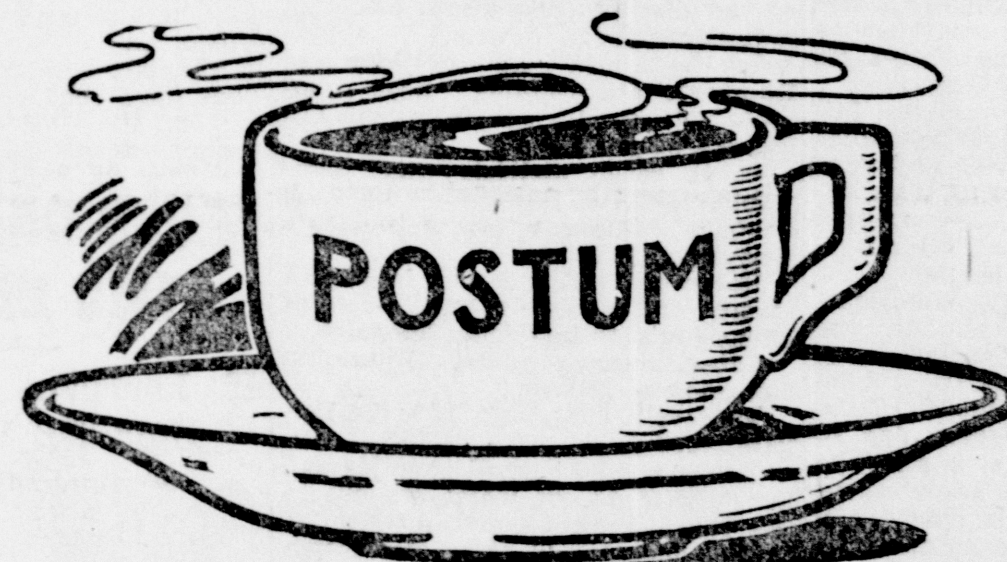

CHICAGO, May 13.—The storm that swept Chicago yesterday and last night had subsided today, leaving behind it two persons dead and many injured. Several lake boats were in danger during the night and day and much damage was done in the city. The wind tore down most of the fences on the south side of Marshall field, the University of Chicago athletic ground. Reports from neighboring cities today told of heavy damage to buildings and trees. At Indiana harbor the home of Edward Walton was undermined by the lake until it was feared the house would fall into the water.

HUSBAND DYING; WIFE IS DEAD

LINCOLN, Neb., May 13.—The second tragedy in as many days was enacted at the home of Martin Gudlinger, when firemen on Saturday found the charred body of Mrs. Gudlinger in the basement of their burning home.

At the same time her husband was lying in St. Clair hospital in a critical condition. Two days ago he was discovered lying on a bed splattered with blood, unconscious, with his throat cut.

Police believe Mrs. Gudlinger, after the unsuccessful attempt on her husband's life, decided to end her own.

PRESIDENTIAL TERMS

Whether or not the alleged movement toward constitutional changes concerning the presidency has secured footing anywhere except in a certain section of the press has not developed, but we are informed that there is a possibility that an effort will be made at the republican national convention to insert a plank in the platform advocating five changes. These are as follows:

1. The term of office is extended to six years.

2. No person who has been president shall be again elected to that office.

3. No nomination for president or vice president shall be made prior to the election of members of the electoral college.

4. Presidential electors are to be chosen one from each congressional district by direct vote of the people.

5. The president of the senate shall exercise the ministerial function of opening and counting the votes of the college.

None of these embodies an unknown principle. With respect to the nomination of president and vice president the plan simply goes back to the original intent of the constitution. It was not the plan of our forefathers that the president should be elected by popular vote. They provided that the people should elect the electoral college and that the members of this should meet and cast about for the great and good man who should be best suited for the position. The next best man was to become vice president. So, today, as far as form goes no one votes directly for president. The names of the various candidates do not appear on the ballot at all. We vote only for delegates to the electoral college, but the college has long since become a mere formality.
By preventing the nomination of president and vice president until after the electoral college has been elected it might be expected by some that a return to former conditions would be brought about. Practically it might not. The result might easily be simply to take away from the responsibility of the party to the people, by enabling it to nominate after the election.

Practically, though, there is no possibility of the five proposals being adopted either by the party or by the nation. The present political tendencies are in the other direction, toward direct government. Neither is there any likelihood of the no re-election suggestion being adopted.

When the constitution was drawn up there was fear of a possible monarchy, but even then the wise men who framed that document did not feel it advisable to restrict the number of times a president could hold office. Since then the fear of a monarchy has been dissipated. Monar-chies have gone out of fashion. The world is turning to the republican form of government. It is unlikely at such a time that we will impose any greater restrictions than seemed wise to our forefathers.

It may be that in time sentiment will grow toward a six year term.
There is no doubt that under present conditions it is disturbing to the industrial and financial interests of the country to have a new election and a possible complete change of policy every four years, so perhaps in the interests of stability it may be thought wise at some future time to lengthen the term of office. This is a matter for the future to determine. There is no immediate likelihood for its adoption.

REGULATING
AUTOMOBILES

Under the new traffic ordinance just passed by the Newark, N. J., city council the automobilist who misuses his warning signal is made guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a fine. This requires that every automobile shall be equipped with an adequate signal and defines such a signal as one producing an "abrupt note, sufficiently loud to be heard under all conditions of traffic," but restricts its use to times when it is "necessary as a warning of danger."

The ordinance is the outcome of a consistent attempt to obviate the needless noise evil and at the same time to increase the safety of the streets. Not only has the careless and indiscriminate use of automobile signals been a source of much annoyance, but such misuse materially lessens their effectiveness as means of warning. The restraining measure has the sanction of all reasonable motorists as well as the general public.

New Jersey has long been the battle-ground for automobile legislation, much of which has been sharply criticised by national motoring interests. The new law, following as it does close upon the passage of the state laws prohibiting the use in towns and cities of the muffler cut-out, puts the state well in line for progressive automobile legislation of the better kind. Of all the useless annoyances that come from motorists the cutting out of the muffler is the worst and it ought to be forbidden in every city.

The new law just enacted by the state of Maryland contains provisions similar to the Newark measure, as do the traffic ordinances recently adopted by Chicago and St. Louis.
The enforcement of the ordinance in these two cities is said to have meas-urably decreased the amount of unnecessary noise and the number of accidents and to have made chauffeurs more careful and considerate in the operation of their cars. Washington, Philadelphia and Milwaukee and several other cities are at present considering the enactment of similar measures; as is also the state of Massachusetts. The need of placing the automobile under thorough regulation is being felt throughout the country generally.

The New York police have arrested Themistocles Phedosophaloph for loitering. They ought to let him go. Any man who has to carry around a name like that can not be blamed for being weary.

dential primaries preceded. Trou-

Why He Went to Panama

Here is a story of Senator Clapp heard in Washington as told to a city official:

Dick Wintersmith was a crony of John G. Carlisle in Washington and when President Cleveland made Carlisle secretary of the treasury, Dick promptly asked his friend for a job, supplementing the request with letters from all his friends. Dick wanted to go to Alaska.

Carlisle said he would look into the matter, and in a few days sent Dick a present of a fine cane. It was a pretty cane and valuable, but it had no crook on it.

Two days later Wintersmith called upon the secretary and thanked him for the cane. "That is a fine cane you sent me," said he, "but I'll lose it sure. I can't hook it over the railing of a bar and I'll sure forget it some day."

"That's so," Carlisle replied, "and the way to keep it is to quit drinking."

Wintersmith went away and returned again within a few days and said: "John, I have changed my mind. I want to be a consul in Panama."

"Why you want to go down there?"

"Well," said Wintersmith, "I've found out that town there you sit at a table when you take a drink, and I can put that cane on a table where I can see it all the time and I won't lose it. Alaska is different."

Carlisle got him the job.—Duluth

A Helpful Hint

My husband having brought home to lunch several trust magnates at a time when there was in the house absolutely nothing to eat except a few kinds of food, I suddenly remembered a dish that mother used to make, and resolved to serve it in lieu of a piece de resistance. As it proved a great success, and as I have often been asked for the recipe, I have resolved to describe it for your readers:

Remove from a loaf of bread thin transverse sections, perhaps a quarter of an inch in thickness. Apply to each an adequate film of butter, confining this to a single side. Prepare some flakes of ham, or other desirable flesh food, to an approximately equal superficies, and arrange the latter adherent to the butter of the former. Disperse upon the hammy surface occasional spotches or daubs of mustard or other suitable condimental flavoring, and then, reversing a spoon, reduce these to a general uniformity. Though hard to describe, the art or knack is soon caught.

Next apply to each of the buttered and hammed slabs a second slab, the second being not necessarily either buttered or hammed, so that the two bread sides will be exterior and the inner sides will remain coherent.

In consuming these dainties, do not separate the component parts, but bite boldly through the whole combination.

Papa was quite fond of these, and in our home named them "Ham Sandwiches," probably after the son of Noah, who bore that name.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Is the Census Always Accurate?

News Item: Active work in the taking of the biennial school census was begun yesterday in Chicago under the direction of W. L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education. The census will try to show the name, address, sex, age and nativity of every person under 21 years of age.

This compulsory education is a wonderfully constructive movement. We wish clothes education among men could be made compulsory also. We would have no difficulty whatsoever then in making men appreciate the exceptional quality and values offered at this shop.

Although the authors originally thousand to one would have been modest odds against her ever playfarical musical in which she comes to the La Crosse theater, Wednesday evening, May 29, for one performance only.

As the time drew near for Miss Lloyd to exercise this option which carried with it an increase of $100 weekly, the scenario of "Little Miss Fix-It" was submitted and met with her entire satisfaction. But, and here was the fly-in-the-amber, it was a pure farce and had no musical setting such as would fit her superlative vaudeville talents, and this could hardly be remedied, and rehearsed within the two weeks time left her to decide between "vodevil" and the "legitimate." Consequently, Miss Lloyd regrettably resigned the part, and eventually Jack Norworth and Nora Baye became the featured members of the company, continuing until Miss Baye's sudden and protracted illness finally compelled them to relinquish their roles.

Truly it is an ill wind that blows no good, for out of this illness of another in far-off England, the cycle of good fortune brought about the very conditions Nerba & Luescher had prayed for.

It was six or seven weeks beyond the time originally set before Miss Lloyd was finally able to sail for New York and by a strange coincidence Mr. Mark A. Luescher was a fellow passenger on the same steamer.

Skipping the minute details, on arrival Mr. Luescher got busy with the cable and Beck at the other end, and with the result that Miss Lloyd at least came into her own as the star of "Little Miss Fix-It," the daily ideal of the part in which memories of her wonderful voice and personality had been mirrored, and thus was it possible for England's greatest singing comedienne to appear at the La Crosse theater, Wednesday evening, May 29, for one performance only.

Prepared for the Worst When Sam Jackson, now the publisher of the Oregon Journal, at Portland, was editor of the East Oregonian of Pendleton he went down to Portland one day and met a con-sulin from Virginia named Norman. He invited Norman to go up to Pendleton with him for a visit. Norman consented. So Sam wired to Mrs.
Jackson:

"Coming on the early morning train—Norman with me." They got to Pendleton about 3 a. m. and went up to the Jackson house. The house was lighted. Jackson was surprised to find Mrs. Jackson waiting for him and was further surprised to observe a rather stern expression on her face.
She met him at the door.

"Where's the woman?" she asked, acidly.

"What woman?" spluttered Jackson.

"This woman you refer to in this message," said Mrs. Jackson, handing her astonished husband the telegram he had sent.

It read: "Coming in the morning —woman with me."—Saturday Eve-

Battle-Scarred Humor

"There is a lot of humor, real humor, to be found on battlefields," said Gen. Nelson A. Miles at a dinner one evening. "I remember the case of a retreat which was really a rout."

"In this retreat the commanding general, as he galloped along like the wind, turned to an aide, who was urging his horse to the limit, and asked:

"Who are our rear guard?"

"The aide, without the slightest hesitation, replied:

"Those who have the worst horses, sir."—Popular Magazine.

A FASCINATING
MYSTERY STORY.

JOHNSTON.

Copyright 1911—The Fobbs-Merrill Co.

The dry, matter-of-fact way in which he recited the facts he had learned added to the value of his narrative. More and more I marveled at the man's detective ability.
I was overwhelmed with a sense of my own incapacity. All day long the coroner, the constable and I had been trying to ferret out the mystery of the unfortunate woman's identity with practically no result. With the same clues to work on, with identically the same properties to draw deductions from, the inspector in a very few minutes had not only learned her identity, but many other important facts about her. Nor did it occur to me to doubt the truth of his information. The assurance with which he spoke was in itself a sufficient guarantee.

"How on earth did you learn all this so quickly?" I asked in amazement.

He smiled with that grim tantalizing smile of his that I had seen before. His cigarette had burned itself to a stub as he spoke.
He turned it carefully in his fingers, inspecting it as if to see whether he could extract another puff before throwing it away. He finally decided that he could not, and drew forth his cigarette papers and tobacco, preparatory to rolling a new one. Meanwhile I awaited his answer in suspense.

"Go on," I commanded. "Tell me about it. I must know how you did it."

"The principal part of a magician's art," he said as he lighted his new cigarette, "lies in what is called 'misdirection.' With a glance from his eyes, with a sudden movement of his hand he attracts your attention to his right side. Meanwhile his left is doing 'the trick.' Now, misdirection, in my business, has just the opposite effect. Amateurs, in investigating crimes, examine the evidence and see clues pointing in some direction. They follow those clues and find themselves floundering. They have the right clues, but they go in the wrong direction. You read the evidence aright as to Miss Sackett coming from Bridgeport, but all your efforts to locate her as Mary Jane Teiler were simply a waste of time. In the clothes she left behind her was her real name."

"Look here," I said, "you can't string me in that fashion. I myself examined those garments closely.
There was no name in them and there were no marks by which she could be identified."

"Is that so?" There was deep sarcasm in his tone.

"And not only that, even if I had overlooked any marks that might have been there, the landlord, the coroner, the constable and half a dozen others examined them closely. If there were any marks, some one of us surely would have discovered them."

For answer he got up leisurely and walked across to a chair where the garments were still lying. He picked up the skirt and held it by the lower hem.

"Look closely at it," he commanded. "Do you see nothing there?"

I scanned the dusty cloth intently and shook my head. He picked up the coat and offered it gravely for my inspection, even turning it inside out, sleeves and all.

"Well, what of it?" I exclaimed impatiently. "I can't see anything there either."

"Can't you?" he asked over-pleasantly. "That's where I found the woman's name."

Again I took up both garments and studied them, but I was positive that there was no name of any sort or anything to indicate a name. I felt that he must be simply jesting with me.

"You can't fool me," I exclaimed. "I would wager you a thousand dollars to five hundred that coat and skirt do not differ any in the slightest from hundreds of other coats and skirts worn by hundreds of other women."

"You lose," he responded tersely. With one finger he began to trace an almost invisible line on the goods where there had once been a seam. "Do you see that mark?"

"Yes," I replied. "I noticed that long ago. It simply means that the skirt has been lengthened or shortened, but what of it?"

"It means more than that," he answered almost severely, as if re-proaching me for my lack of observation. "It means that a thirty-eight skirt has been lengthened an inch and a half. Look at this coat."

"I must confess I still don't see how that knowledge will help you."

of every such establishment is to reduce alterations to a minimum.
For that reason he keeps a record of every alteration made. This particular dress happened to come from a store where I know the

I described the goods in the suit, gave him the size and the sort of alterations that had been made on it and asked him to have his card index looked up. I told him in all probability the woman I wanted to know about came from Bridgeport, Conn., or near there. It happened that only three of the eight suits they had made from this piece of goods—at least the only ones entered on the alteration cards—had gone to Connecticut. Of the three, two were thirty-six coats, so they could be eliminated at once. The third one had had the sleeves lengthened and also the skirt. The sizes corresponded, so there was very little doubt that it had been this woman who had bought it.

Some Mourner

Down in Georgia a negro who had his widow. She immediately bought herself a very elaborate mourning

Showing her purchases to a friend, "Them sho' is fine clo'es, but, be-

The bereaved one sighed:

The United States Tire

Company believes its tires are the lowest-cost tires in the world.

Tire-buy satisfied

Here are the reasons:

No other tires in the world are made under conditions so favorable to the greatest possible tire durability.

In no other tires is there combined the tire knowledge, skill and experience of four corps of master tire builders.

In United States Tires only is the motorist protected by a four-factor "check" against defects of any and every kind.

The tremendous facilities of the United States Tire Company are devoted exclusively to the manufacture of superior grade tires.

And the avowed purpose of the Company (a purely selfish purpose) is to build tires that will positively and appreciably reduce the season's tire bills for motorists who use them.

Mark that word season's.

It is your season's expense, and not the purchase price, that determines how much you actually pay per tire.

Don't overlook that fact for a single minute.

The more experience you have had in tire-buying the more fully you know that last costs are the real costs, and the less apt are you to be influenced by the "cost less" argument.

NORTH LA CROSSE WINS TWO GAMES

Defeat National Gauge and Register Company Team and the Onalaska Bunch

The North La Crosse baseball team won a double header yesterday by defeating the National Gauge and Register company team at Copeland park by the score of 10 to 7, in a seven inning game after which they went to Onalaska and beat that nine by the count of 9 to 4.

The victory over the National Gauge and Register company was an easy one for the north side team, as the former could do no scoring except in the seventh and ninth innings. Fridgen twirled good ball up to the seventh when his opponents solved his delivery for seven hits and six runs. Roeder succeeded him on the slab. Schroeder pitched a steady game, holding the heavy hitting north sliders to eight hits but these were made at opportune times and resulted in runs.

Score: R H E N. La Crosse .004411x-10 8 7 National .0000601-7 7 7

Batteries: Fridgen, Roeder and Bott; Schroeder and Clemens.

Olson, the star southpaw of the North La Crosse team, took the slab against the Onalaska nine and he held them to three scratch hits with the result that the north sliders won their second victory of the day, 9 to 4. The game was one of the fastest and most interesting ever played at Onalaska.

North La Crosse found Christopherson, the Onalaska pitcher, for fifteen hits and they bunched these swats to advantage, nine earned runs resulting from their batting.

Carl Scholberg has been signed by Manager Coughlin and he played his first game in the outfield at Onalaska. He showed up well, fielding his position in fine style and getting three hits out of four trips to the plate.

ONALASKA TRACKS TO BE REPLACED

Shipment of New Steel Rails to Be Used on the Street Car Line Arrives Here Today

Work on laying new rails and repairing the Onalaska car line will be started next week, according to announcement of the La Crosse & Onalaska Railway company this morning.

The new steel for the road has arrived and is at present in the Burlington yards.

Despite the fact that the company was willing to straighten out the route to Onalaska, thereby making possible the cutting down of the time between there and this city, the citizens of Onalaska, it is said, were satisfied with the present route.

"The heavy rails are of the heavy steel type," said a street car official this morning, "and the road will be ballasted and put in shape to permit of the use of the heavier cars."

When completed the Onalaska line will be in point of engineering and smooth travel, equal to any on the La Crosse system. It is believed that with the new road the time between the two cities may be cut down materially and better service result for Onalaska.

A few years ago, following an investigation by the railroad rate commission, the company was ordered to abandon its old car, repair tracks and make other improvements. The old car gave way for a modern type but the old rails, a relic of the horse car days, made its use impossible.

HURLEY BREAKS SPEED RECORD

Milwaukee Engineer Makes Run Between Portage and La Crosse in Less than Two Hours

A new record time for a run between Portage and La Crosse was established yesterday when train No. 57, C. M. & St. P. railroad, with Engineer Richard Hurley, 1208 Caledonia street, at the throttle, made the distance between those two points in one hour and fifty-seven minutes. Hurley's run of yesterday breaks the former record of two hours, held by Pat O'Bryne and established about a month ago, by three minutes.

Running with the full number of coaches, No. 57 left Portage late as they were late in leaving Chicago on account of time lost in connections. This forced them to make up the time between Portage and this city and Hurley made the run as quickly as he could safely do so. Making two stops between Portage and this city was responsible for losing about fifteen minutes' time but when the train arrived at La Crosse it was exactly on scheduled time. No. 57, which runs between Chicago and Minneapolis, is due to reach La Crosse at 4:05 a. m., and they reached the city at that time yesterday morning in spite of a late start. John Carey of Portage was the conductor in charge of the train. Engine No. 3111 was on the train.

PREPARE CHAIR FOR RICHESON

BOSTON, May 13.—Rev. C. T. V. Richeson, Avis Linnell's slayer, was today again submitted to a grueling test by Doctors Stedman, Frost and Tuttle, in the music room of the sheriff's residence at Charles street jail. Today's tests were similar to those to which the minister-murderer was subjected yesterday.

There is little likelihood Richeson will be transferred to the death cell at Charlestown prison before Thursday morning. Fear of a nervous collapse may prevent his removal before Sunday. In the meantime Warden Bridges of Charlestown prison today began his gruesome preparations for receiving Richeson. The death-cell was put in order. To prevent any possible "untoward event" during the execution, the wires were completely gone over and the current tested.

$22,000 PRIZE FOR WORLD'S FASTEST MOTOR BOAT

The Wm. Wrigley Jr. Trophy for the power boat championship of the world represents over $22,000. It is a perpetual trophy to be won each year by the club whose motor speed boat entry makes the best three out of five races in competition open to the world, free for all boats under 40 feet in length.

It is a reproduction in silver of a "Flying Mercury" presenting to Neptune a hydroplane motor speed boat. Neptune with his trident, dolphins and water surrounding are in bronze. The round pedestal is of green marble. The figure of Mercury and the model speed boat contain 1,000 ounces of sterling silver. The trophy stands 5 feet 5 inches high. The base is 47 inches in diameter.

Mr. Wrigley will provide annually a replica of this big $5,000 trophy, which becomes the personal property of the winner of each year's races. To provide this trophy annually will require an endowment of about $17,500, thus giving Mr. Wrigley's trophy a value of about $22,000. In addition to these prizes are a $1,500 cash prize for the winner and a $500 cash prize for the second boat.

The first races will be held at Chicago during the Water Carnival and Naval Review, Aug. 10 to 17 inclusive, 1912. It is expected that there will be boats from all over the world.

Water Carnival week at Chicago will include the other races in the Fourth Annual Regatta of the Western Power Boat Association, the International Yacht Race between the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto and the Chicago Yacht Club, the Lipton Cup Races of Columbia Yacht Club, fireworks displays, naval parades, swimming and diving contests and exhibitions by sailors, marines and naval reserves.

In all the competitions there will be handsome trophies or liberal cash prizes. William Hale Thompson, Commodore, Associated Yacht and Power Boat Clubs, Chicago, will be glad to supply information.

MARATHON DANCE STOPPED BY POLICE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 13.—Fearing several deaths or serious injury among the marathon dancers who started on their all-night reel in Dreamland on Saturday, Capt. John Sullivan and a detail of detectives and police stopped the dancers after they had been on the floor one hour and one minute and placed a ban on marathon dancing in all halls in the city.

When Mayor Bading heard on Saturday that a marathon dance was contemplated he recalled the death of a young girl in San Francisco about a year ago who danced more than thirty hours to win some trifling prize. She dropped dead in her partner's arms and marathon dancing ended in San Francisco.

Chief Janssen was requested by the mayor to censor the dance at Dreamland and Capt. John Sullivan was assigned to determine whether it was safe for the contestants to go through many hours of dancing without serious injury.

Mr. Wirth said all dancers had been examined by physicians to determine whether they were strong enough to withstand the strain of the continued dancing. Preparations had been made to feed the dancers with toast and fruit while they circled the floor and a set of rules prepared to govern every phase of the contest.

Bangor defeated the Summit baseball team of this city at Bangor yesterday by the count of 9 to 3 in a well played game. Stintzi pitched a good game for Bangor, and the locals could do little with his delivery. Horn and Hill formed the battery for the locals, while Stintzi and Haak worked for Bangor.

The Park Store team lost a well played game to Viroqua at Viroqua yesterday afternoon. The game was close and interesting and both nines put up a good article of ball. Rabbit did the twirling for Viroqua, while Anderson was on the mound for the Park Store.

SHE WAS A CHICAGOAN

POLICE FIND CHURCH BADGES OF WINDY CITY ON BODY OF LOS ANGELES MURDER VICTIM

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 12.—Although the detectives are confident that she was from Chicago, the identity of the woman who was found murdered in a vacant bungalow in the northeastern part of the city has not yet been established.

Aside from the fact that the letter "K" was embroidered on the corner of her handkerchief, that her hat was purchased at Marshall Field's, Chicago, and that she wore badges and medals of the Church of the Holy Name, Chicago, there is nothing by which her antecedents can be traced.

The police say the victim was fully 35 years old. They are pinning their hopes of identification to the laundry marks "C" and "X42," found on her clothing.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The police of this city were busy trying to learn the identity of the young woman who was murdered in a vacant house in Los Angeles. Their only leads consisted of a description of the badge of the Sodality of the Church of the Holy Name, which she wore, and laundry marks on her clothing. Thus far all hopes have failed. Sodality members of the various Catholic churches in the city are aiding the police.

PUBLIC DEBATE

Mr. Editor:

There appeared in the Outlook publication a week or two since, an article against female suffrage, written by a woman. She evidently designed it for an argument, but it fell short of the essentials that go to make an argument—fact and sound logic. As a matter of fact her figures are all wrong when she states the number of women who want the ballot. If she had been particular about the truth she could have obtained the information from any suffrage headquarters as to the number of women who wish to vote.

The madam is very happy, apparently living as she does under the good laws that men have made, and, in a way, she seems to understand that women through persistent agitation, helped the making of these laws by their influence; but she does not realize how much more speedily they could have been obtained if the women could have voted the same as the men. Men never make nor change laws except by voting.

It is right for the lady to stay at home, if that is necessary in her case, to take care of her babies; but babies grow up, and, if they chance to be girls, the lady will, no doubt, avail herself of all the means for their higher education which this constant agitation of noble women has provided for them. (Mr. Bok of the Ladies' Home Journal thinks they ought not to be educated.) But this lady understands that this higher education of women is essential in our advanced civilization to fit them for that position in life which they should occupy if they would be in harmony with present times and environments; but she does not seem to understand that there is now quite as much for women to do as in the earlier days for the advancement of civilization and in the interest of good government. Suffragists think now as they thought then that this work can be helped along by universal suffrage. These early workers were scorned and reviled by both men and women of a certain class near of kin to the lady in question, but their good works live after them, and no one at the present day objects to taking advantage of these better conditions.

Dr. Lyman Abbot of the Outlook is opposed to equal suffrage and gives the article above referred to a very prominent position in his book. The doctor is also argumentative. He says that it was intended by nature that men and women should pursue different lines of work; therefore, women are not qualified to use the ballot. This conclusion has no logical connection with the premises. It is a non sequitur. What can this possibly have to do with voting? But is their work so very different in these days? There are women lawyers and men cooks. These cooks can vote and the lawyers cannot. There are women journalists and editors who are directly in Doctor Abbot's line. Why should the doctor be allowed to vote and the women not be allowed to do so? "O, consistency, thou art a jewel."

If nature or an inscrutable providence intended that the work of men and women should be entirely different, either one must be a good deal rattled at the mixup. If this mixup is wrong, how is it to be remedied? The women are here and certainly will not be not willing to starve. To be sure women are a trial in the political and industrial world, but there is a law against drowning girl babies, and as they grow up to be women they get into the labor market and hence all the trouble. The only suggestion that fits the case is for the men to marry them and get them out of the way. This seems flippant, but some questions cannot be treated seriously. But the men might consider the remedy worse than the disease.

CARLETON SPEAKS ON THE HEREAFTER

"Many persons are opposed to using the word 'Hell' because it has an offensive sound, and I have even heard a minister declare that no gentleman would use the word. If that is so, Jesus Christ was not a gentleman. Hell is not a pleasant subject, but it is an existing fact and must be looked square in the face.

"Some men are so egotistical that they think a thing is not so simply because they do not believe it. Some say, 'I don't believe there is a hell,' but that don't do away with the hell however, simply because a man does not believe it exists. Facts are facts whether a man's mind receives them or not, and I believe there is a hell.

"Sometimes I wish I didn't believe in hell. It is a terrible thing, but we must accept it."

In speaking on the existence of God's love for people, Rev. Carleton declared that he has shown it by things he has given us to be instrumental in living and protecting ourselves.

There will be no services tonight, but services will be held every night this week with this exception.

HELL AWAITS MANY SAYS REV. BEADLES

Rev. Beadles, the Evangelist in charge of the revival meetings at the First Methodist church, gave a stirring lecture on life, death and the hereafter at the services last night.

He declared that nations, people, animals and plants must all die, and that there is no power on earth that can avert death. In continuing he said: "You don't know what day death is coming your way and you should be prepared for it. There are two deaths. One when the body and soul part, and the other when the soul is cast into the fire and brimstone of hell. The first death we cannot avoid, but the second we can and must.

"People are becoming so intellectual that they are offended by the plain language of God and wish to use a gentler term in referring to hell, but there is no need of trying to dodge the issue. It's either follow the ten commandments or die for the second time, and, call it what you like, it will be just as unpleasant. Hundreds of La Crosse people and even many of our church members are doomed to this punishment," he concluded.

BOY SHOT BY TROOPS IN RIOT

SCRANTON, Pa., May 12.—Fourteen-year-old Louis Broughnuch of Hufnagle Flats, Dickson, was shot over the heart by a state trooper in the vicinity of the Olyphant No. 2 breaker of the Delaware & Hudson company, Saturday. The boy is in a critical condition, the attending physicians stating that there are only slight chances for his recovery. County Detective Rafter is investigating the shooting, Olyphant and Dickson authorities claiming that it was unwarranted. The explanation of the state troopers is that one of the troopers was drawing his revolver when it was accidentally discharged.

FOR SICK, SOUR, BILIOUS STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND GASTRIC CASCARETS

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep the entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too.

"DEAD MEN" ENJOY WORK OF NURSES

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Dead and dying littered the park around Washington's monument Saturday afternoon. Carnage and bloodshed made a gory spectacle like a battlefield. But it was all "make believe"—the drills of teams attending the International Red Cross conference. Men playing dead and wounded made a most realistic spectacle. And the "dead and dying" enjoyed it, as well as an immense audience, comprising the diplomatic and congressional corps, and all official Washington.

Society bells, headed by Miss Marion Oliver, daughter of the assistant secretary of war, and Miss Alys Meyer, daughter of the secretary of the navy, led rival teams of Red Cross nurses.

Explosion of an artificial coal mine was another spectacular feature of the drills. A coal mine car was used, with all first aid appliances for mining disasters.

NELSON WANTS $2,500

PUEBLO, Colo., May 12.—Local fight promoters received word here that it will require $2,500 to land a bout between Bat Nelson and Eddie Johnson of Pueblo, or Phil Knight of Kansas City in this city on July 4. Negotiations have been pending between Matchmaker Fitzpatrick and the fighting Dane, but it was not known until today upon what terms he would come. Nelson demanded a guarantee of $2,500. Local promoters consider this too much.

FRANK MUNN TO QUIT LA CROSSE

General Manager of Oyen Sign Co. Accepts Position with Large Minneapolis Firm

Chosen from a number of other artists for the responsible position of designer and assistant manager of the Northern Display Ad company of Minneapolis, Frank Munn, for the last eight years general manager of the Oyen Ad Sign System of La Crosse, will leave this city June 1 to take up his new duties.

The Minneapolis concern is one of the largest advertising sign companies in the United States, controlling all outdoor ad signs in Minneapolis and St. Paul, as well as several smaller Minnesota cities. The clever and artistic work of Mr. Munn in La Crosse brought him to the notice of the Twin city firm, and caused them to open negotiations for his services. The position he will fill has been vacant for some time.

Mr. Munn came to La Crosse from Chicago in 1904. He started with the Oyen company as a sign artist. In 1905 he took charge as manager, and in 1906 became general manager and secretary. Under his direction the sign business has increased until national advertisers have realized the fact that their work can be done as well in La Crosse as in any of the larger cities.

"I regret to leave La Crosse, in a way," said Mr. Munn today, "because I have a great many friends and many acquaintances with whom I am not as well acquainted as I should like. I have spent many hours working with the boys, but I do not know of an enemy that I have made in La Crosse. It is only that I have a larger field and a 'golden opportunity' that I am going to Minneapolis."

"La Crosse has been good to me, and I feel that my business associations here have been the most pleasant of my life. I hope that I shall be able to progress as rapidly in Minneapolis as I have in La Crosse."

Many local business men have expressed their regrets that Mr. Munn is leaving, but they have united in wishing him success.

ELEVATOR RULES ISSUED BY STATE

The Industrial Commission Makes Rules Governing Safeguards on Mechanical Devices

EQUIPMENT IS REGULATED

All Elevators Must Comply with Rules Issued; Will Make More Later

MADISON, Wis., May 13.—After six months of continuous investigation, the industrial commission of Wisconsin has formally adopted thirty orders relating to the safeguarding of machinery and elevators, the first of the orders published by the commission.

They affect practically every manufacturing industry and are important in the campaign for prevention of accidents. The new general orders become effective on June 13. They require guards on all emery wheels, belts, belt shifters, clutches, fly wheels and moving parts of machinery which menace workmen. The orders also require the elimination of the dangerous projecting set screw, responsible for hundreds of deaths. The circular and band saw are also mentioned.

Orders relating to elevators are in a separate chapter and avoid conflict with local ordinances, apply to passenger and freight elevators and will make it necessary for hundreds of concerns to re-equip elevators.

Orders as to Elevators

All elevators, except direct lift, must be equipped with an automatic device to catch the car if it drops. Safety devices must be tested once each month.

All freight elevators must be equipped at each landing with self-closing gates not less than five and a half feet in height.

Gates swinging on vertical axes will not be permitted.

All gates or doors for entrances to freight elevators must be of sufficient strength to withstand a lateral pressure at the center of not less than 250 pounds.

All passenger elevators must be equipped at each landing with doors which must entirely fill the opening to the shaft. All such doors must be constructed of solid metal, wire, glass or screen.

All passenger elevators, except automatic push button control elevators, must have a competent operator stationed on the car.

The doors of passenger elevators must not be opened until the car reaches the landing, and must be closed and locked before the car leaves the landing.

The operating level, wheel or switch of a passenger elevator car must not be operated except by the operator stationed on the car. Hand rope controls of passenger elevators are not permitted on new installations or alterations.

Ample light must be provided for all elevator cars and landings.

On all passenger elevators the threshold of the car and the landing should be well lighted to prevent persons from stumbling when the car does not stop even with the floor.

All passenger elevators must be fully enclosed on all sides except on entrance sides. Glass must not be used except to cover certificates, annunciators and lamps. Mirrors are strictly forbidden.

The roof of the car must be constructed of solid material.

Where cars of passenger elevators have more than one entrance the entrance other than the one facing the operator must be equipped with a gate or door entirely filling the opening, which must be kept closed when the car is in motion.

In all passenger elevator cars there must be placed on all sides, not having door openings or seats a metal handrail one inch in diameter and not less than three feet above the floor.

MACDONALD WILL PUT ON A SHOW

Will Present "On a Roof Garden" for Benefit of Home for the Friendless

Donald MacDonald, who has just returned from New York, will stage his latest musical production, "On a Roof Garden," for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless, at the theater, Thursday, May 23rd.

Mr. MacDonald's shows are always big hits and this new one has scored a tremendous success all over the country. Mr. MacDonald has put this on in the past season at Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Harrisburg and Brooklyn, where his success was phenomenal.

The first rehearsal will be held at the old Elks' hall in the theater building tonight. About eighty of the young society and musical people of the city will take part and most of the favorites of "Up and Down Broadway," Mr. MacDonald's last production here, will again take part, and an unusually brilliant performance will be the result. Mr. MacDonald broke the record for attendance at the Shubert theater in Minneapolis last fall and hundreds of people were turned away. The affair promises to be a huge success.

Everyday Silverware

There is nothing like good plated silverware for everyday use. Of course there is quite a difference in plated silverware. The quality all depends on the amount of silver used in the plating process. Even the cheapest grades look good when new—it's the wear that tells.

The only kind of plated ware we sell is the kind that has stood the test of time. We guarantee every piece of silver we sell to give years of wear, even when used every day. If it is made in silver or silver plate, we are sure to have it.

UNITE FLAGS OF TWO REPUBLICS

Chinese Delegates to Methodist Convention Extend Thanks of Nation to United States

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 13.—Chinese and American flags, the new banner of the new republic and the stars and stripes of the older country were entwined and raised on the platform of the Auditorium here today when the Chinese delegates to the Methodist Episcopal General Conference addressed the gathering.

China Thanks U. S.

Drs. De E. El Wong, Dray Sul, and T. H. Chen presented a resolution thanking the United States for her friendship, the restoring of the Boxer indemnity and her stand on the trouble of 1910. It also declared China desired to devote her resources to commercial advancement rather than to be a world-power in an armored sense. Dr. Bi Lu Si, a Chinese woman physician, declared Chinese women desired to pattern after the womanhood of the United States.

The conference refused to vote on a resolution condemning the Sunday newspaper and the matter was referred to a committee. Eight New Bishops. Though the report of the Episcopal committee is not fully decided upon, the committee's present judgment is that five new episcopal residences should be established and three bishops retired. The bishops whose retirement is now as well as assured as it can be till the committee submits its report tomorrow are Warren, Moore and McIntyre. The latter making a hard fight for retention. The new episcopal residences recommended will be St. Louis, Los Angeles, Helena, Pittsburgh and Kansas City.

SOCIALISTS OPEN CONVENTION IN INDIANA TODAY

read in it a reputation of the party idol, Eugene V. Debs and it was not believed that the convention would go on record as opposing "red" socialists, or any other method which would bring socialism nearer to the rank and file of the voters of America.

Work protested against any "red special" campaign trains in the coming fight. He appealed for a "campaign of literature" and for the flooding of the country with socialist doctrines. To finance it he recommended a special assessment of one dollar a member, ten per cent to go to the national office, 40 per cent to state offices and 50 per cent to locals.

The convention today adopted the rules that will govern throughout the week. Speeches were limited to five minutes each and the committee chairman were given twenty minutes to deliver their reports.

There was much interest today in the report of the committee, which was named by the national organization to investigate the immigration question, and there was consequent relief when the majority of the committee reported in favor of endorsing the Asiatic exclusion act. There was a strong minority in opposition and it was certain that when the report comes up for discussion that it will be rejected.

Seidel Meets Seiback

The Wisconsin delegation were behind the boom of former Mayor Seidel of Milwaukee to try to amend the rules of the convention whereby they would muzzle the proxies, but failed. They tried to make the rules read that a "majority of the delegates present" could nominate, but their suggestion was overwhelmingly voted down.

OUTCASTS WIN DOUBLE HEADER

Nelsons and Clothing Company Ball Boys Go Down to Defeat Before the League Players

In the first double header of the season yesterday the Outcasts won two victories, defeating the Nelson Clothing company team by the score of 3 to 1 and handing the La Crosse Clothing company a coat of valcimine to the tune of 3 to 0. Each game went seven innings and a large gathering of fans came to see the Outcasts play for the last time before the opening of the season at Rochester tomorrow.

Although Squires for the Nelsons pitched a good game and allowed the Outcasts but six swats, he issued numerous passes, which, combined with errors by his teammates and hits, brought about his defeat. Meinert and Withrow both beat out bunts in the first round, were sacrificed ahead by Du Chien and scored on a two base swat to right by Van Horn. The latter went to third on a wild pitch and scored on an error. From then on it was easy for the league players who maintained a safe lead and who would have shut out their opponents had it not been for an error by Van Horn.

The first chance the Nelsons had to count was in the third when they filled the sacks with nobody out. A strikeout and a double play, Morse to Brown to Van Horn, killed this promising opening. However, they were more successful in the sixth round when, with Fuchsel on the slab and two gone, K. Wall tripped to center. Erickson hit one to Misch who had his man at first but Van Horn dropped the ball and Wall's run counted.

Morse twirled five rounds for Bond's men, allowing two bingles, and Fuchsel, a southpaw, was on the slab in the last two rounds and allowed a like number of hits. Weigert started by making two great stops of grounders back of second and he got his man both times. Nelson, Minny umpire, handled the indicator.

Score:
Nelsons 0000010—1 4 3 Batteries: Morse, Fuchsel and Brown; Squires and Jurgenson.

Outcasts Win Again
The La Crosse Clothing company with Chalsma, the tall Holmen box artist, on the mound, put up a determined fight in the second game, but they could gather but one safe hit off the deliveries of Nally and Chase, and the Outcasts shut them out, 3 to 0. Griffin, former normal school catcher, got the only hit his team made, and he found Chief Chase for a fine two sacker to right field. Although he stole third base, his teammates could not score him. He was the only man on his team to see third base during the game.

Meinert and Weigert, former members of the Clothiers, were prominent in the defeat of their old teammates for it was their bats which sent all the runs across the plate. In the third round Meinert beat out a hit to Satek and went to second when Schroeder did the same thing on a hit towards right field. Tomer sacrificed and when Van Horn knocked a hot one to Kelly, Meinert registered with the first tally.

Misch started it in the sixth by beating out a hit to Peterson, following which he pilfered second. Horan sacrificed him to third and Weigert, who was to be this year's captain of the Clothiers, sent Misch across the pan with a single to left. He also stole second, went to third on an out and counted on Meinert's fierce two bagger to center. Weigert made one of the best fielding plays of the day when he went in back of second to spear Solie's grounder in the last frame and he threw the runner out. Lefty Marsh umpired this game.

Nally pitched the first three rounds which were hitless and Chase gave one hit in four innings.

Clothiers 000000—0 1 3 Batteries: Nally, Chase and Brown; Chalsma and Griffin.

MADISON WINS BY NARROW MARGIN

Track Meet Goes to Capital Mud-horses with but 5½ Points More Than La Crosse

In a drizzling rain and on a muddy track which made fast work an impossibility, the Madison high school won the invitation track meet at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon by scoring 56 points and beating out the local highs by a margin of but five and one-half points, as La Crosse scored 50½. The race between Madison and La Crosse for first place was a close and interesting one and the outcome was in doubt up to the last few events. Menomoneie was third with a score of 10½ and Mondovi was fourth with 8 points.

La Crosse did excellent work and they gave the capital city team a hard finish and they were ahead several times. Madison won out by great all around work in both track and field events.

Because of the muddy condition of the track no records could be broken but the marks made in the various events were excellent considering the adverse weather conditions. The runners could get no satisfactory starts because the ground was too slippery and they were greatly handicapped in both the distance runs and the sprints.

Dove of the victorious Madison team captured the individual honors of the day by scoring sixteen points and he would have had twenty-one to his credit had he not been disqualified for pushing in the 440 yard dash. Protesting Dove because he pushed Broadfoot of Mondovi, the Madison man was disqualified and first honors were taken away from him and given to Broadfoot, who finished second.

Captain Strum of the local team scored ten points for La Crosse by winning both the mile and the half mile in easy fashion. He outran his opponents in each of these events by wide margins and he finished an easy winner. The muddy track handicapped him in his running for he has many times made better time.

Krause's work in the discus throw, which he won by heaving the discus 90 feet, 4 inches, was too much for the other entries, and he also showed up well in the pole vault, losing out to Dove by a narrow margin. Taylor won the shot put easily with a distance of 39 feet, 1 inch, and he will compete in the interscholastic meet at Madison.

Summary:
120 Yard Hurdles.—Won by Hill, La Crosse; Valaski, Menomoneie, second; Nelson, Madison, third. Time, 19 seconds.
Pole Vault.—Won by Dove, Madison; Krause, La Crosse, second; Enders, La Crosse, third. Height, 8 feet, 6 inches.

220 Yard Hurdles.—Won by Nel-

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

The return of Ed. Sweeney looks like the passing of Charles Street, late of Washington, Williamsport, and other points.

They will begin to forget Mathewson if this winning streak of Rube Marquard continues. "The lemon that McGraw bought" is certainly coming back to the fans in New York who started the roar in that big city.

Those slow-on-the-bases Reds did not have to run again yesterday, for they hit Nap Rucker's slants hard enough in the third round to make the scoring in what might be called a sauntering manner.

Roger Bresnahan's team was good to its pitcher. Willis held Boston hitless for six rounds, and was then bumped for three runs. The Hens came back with three in the eighth and saved the day.

Jerry Akers went along as a fine young twirler for five innings yesterday and then with the bases filled in the sixth, a young outfielder, named Ryan walloped the ball over the fence. Thus the percentage of Griffith's Senators fell below that of the Reds, his former proteges.

ELI CREW TOUTED TO BEAT HARVARD

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 13.—Yale men close to the naval powers at Eli stated privately today that the blue has reason to be hopeful of victory over Harvard in the annual regatta on the Thames this year. The confidence is due to faith in Jim Rogers and Bob Cook, the new rowing coaches. Eli oarsmen are said to have adapted themselves quickly to the famous Cook stroke and there is reported to be plenty of power and speed in the boats.

KILBANE VS. BURNS TOMORROW

NEW YORK, May 13.—The event of the week in Pugdom is the ten-round battle between Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, featherweight champion, and Frankie Burns of Jersey City, leading contender, at the St. Nicholas Athletic club tomorrow night.

Kelley, the Outcast first baseman who was sold to Wausau last winter, has failed to report to Manager Mike Malloy so far this season. Kelley has a good position in Chicago and evidently figures that he can make more money in business than playing baseball.

Summary:
Shot Put.—Won by Taylor, La Crosse; Chamberlain, La Crosse, second; McMurphy, Madison, third. Distance, 39 feet, 1 inch.
